Love illuminated is a book for anyone interested in how to find love, how to keep love, how to survive love's trials – yet it is not a how-to manual so much as an exploration of the terrain and a thoughtful distillation of anecdotes and findings after 10 years of editing the wildly popular “Modern Love” column in the Sunday New York Times. It’s also a book for those who are just plain interested – and who isn’t? – in the subject of love.
