Review: That Face ~ theatre notes

The play was written by Polly Stenham and was written in the style of Realism. That Face is considered a "Realistic play", however, there are also some underlying elements of Freudian ideologies, as seen in the Psychological Realism, as well as elements from Pinteresque. When you delve deep within the play, there are many Freudian images of repressed desires behind the relationship between the mother and son, Martha and Henry, as well as a few other symbols.
